Career & Family Transitions with Confidence

Taking the leap into anything takes confidence. At Dynamic Works, we provide convenient and relevant virtual training services to develop skills — and mindsets — that make work life more fulfilling for every stakeholder in the workplace.

We are excited to introduce a new program called LEAP (Leverage Employee Assistance Program) that can extend the customer value and experience of your EAP offering. By adding LEAP to current EAP programs, employees and their families will gain access to content that benefits them throughout a variety of career and family life transition scenarios that ideally will inspire them to leverage their EAP benefits ongoing.

From employees working remotely versus in an office to those transitioning out of an organization due to company restructuring, the LEAP offering gracefully guides employees in transition by using cutting-edge virtual tools and self-paced courses that meet employees where they are, when they need it.

LEAP also has courses that can benefit the family members of employees. Perhaps an employee has a teenager seeking tips on money management or looking to prepare for their first job or has aging parents coping with retirement and employment challenges. Having LEAP as an extension to an EAP offering provides added value to employees as support for their families.

LEAP can be a tool that reduces employee stress in their personal lives, so they remain committed, focused and productive in the workplace.

- LEAP gives employees that confidence.
- LEAP is a career path map and personal guide that enables employees to navigate professional transitions on their own.
- LEAP courses can benefit employees and their families. From MoneySmarts to effective Communications, there is content that both employees and their family members can benefit from to help them advance and even inspire.
- LEAP has placed over 80% who have taken advantage of the courses within 3 months of lay-off.
